Shawn McBurney, Lobbyist American Hotel and Lodging Association

Shawn is senior vice president of governmental affairs at the American Hotel & Lodging Association (AH&LA) where he monitors federal legislative activities and represents the department on tax, labor, international business, and other legislative issues. He was also appointed to the Industry Trade Advisory Committee on Services and Finance Industries, which is jointly administered by the U.S. Department of Commerce and the U.S. Trade Representative to represent AH&LA and U.S. industry.

Tamar Jacoby, Sr. Fellow Manhattan Institute for Policy Research

Tamar writes extensively on immigration and citizenship. She is a leading conservative voice in the media in favor of immigration reform and works to organize the center-right behind proposals taking place in Washington. In addition to her published writings and media commentary, she works behind-the-scenes in Washington to help develop immigration policy, writing policy papers, testifying in Congress, and working with a range of congressional offices.
